2024 PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

As we conclude 2024, I think about the past, present, and future all together. It has been a great year on many levels, yet difficult at the same time. The economic environment posed challenges to some degrees, and I am hopeful 2025 will be great for everyone. I have learned to show patience, support, & gratitude in these circumstances; and at times, I would state that it is pertinent to consider tolerance. I am excited with what we accomplished this year, and I look forward to seeing what is on the forefront for the years to come. There were many great accomplishments and as we review these, and understand the magnitude of work in place to make this come to fruition, I think I can speak for all in extending my heart and stating thank you.

I look forward to seeing progress in this profession as well as with our chapter.

Best Regards,
Jonathan Cole, SRA, AI-RRS
President
